35 YOEMEN REPORT AT FIELD OPENING DAY

Thirty-five Yoemen, most of them lettermen from the 1946 team were at the field Monday morning when Coach Leo Jackson and Line Coach Dick Young began to get their practice formula in operation.

The Yoemen looked pretty ragged in their first work out. It was 7:30 when they trotted on the field. They worked until 9 and then puffed up the hill to the blackboards where they got their first taste of 1947 deep stuff.

Coaches Jackson and Young were not inclined to comment when The Daily Herald reached them. It was a sort of not too good, not too bad way they had of saying it.

Whatever the prospects there is a lot of hard work to do. The Yoemen are not ready—not near ready for any kind of game and they meet Burbank of San Antonio here September 12.

Punters and place kickers will be out in the sundrenched stadium at 3:30 Monday and will stay there until 4:30. At 7:30 Monday night is a full scale preview in the early, awkward stage of putting a football machine together. Its no joke for the old machine gets pretty rusty since last fall.

Jerry Sellers of Garland and 28 Garland Owls are here for a week. There will be a final scrimmage on Friday night. Seller's boys lost only one game last year. It is his third year here in succession.

Coach Jackson said he expects some 45 men to be on the squad when the season opens September 12. The country boys on the squad may not be in for night work this week but school starts Monday, September 8 and they will be on the buses.

A full week of work and next week a polish off for the game with Burbank. Then on the following Friday night Caldwell comes here. Last year the Yoemen got away lucky with the Hornets. It was 7 to 0.

170 DIE IN HIGHWAY CRASHES OVER NATION

Labor Day 1947 was expected to yield up more dead than any other year in which it has been observed as a national holiday.

Up to 7 a. m. Monday a total of 237 had died from various accidents since the celebration period began on Friday night. Of the total dead 170 had met deaths on the highways in auto wrecks and crashes.

Texas led the nation with 16 dead.

The frightful toll was due to go much higher because the nationwide observance was due to reach a climax Monday. On the whole the observance of the day took on the customary festivities. Labor was getting the congress told and taking a sideswipe at management over the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill and there was encouragement from the White House and the President's cabinet.

The President before taking off for Brazil issued a Labor Day message in which he called for higher wages, health measures and general better treatment of the working man.

Secretary Swollenbach of the Labor Department, consistent foe of the new labor laws, said wages were in no wise responsible for present costs.

College Amendment Fate Still In Doubt

DALLAS, Aug. 27.—Robert Johnson, manager of the Texas Election Bureau, said tonight that despite a narrowing lead in late returns from last Saturday's election, the hotly contested college building amendment probably still would carry.

The count today was 98,078 for and 87,805 against the amendment, with 233 of 254 counties reporting, 133 complete.

Johnson said that while the amendment's lead was expected to be cut into further, the number of votes still out were believed to be insufficient to change the final outcome.

Mrs. N. E. Pitts and sons, Eddie and Johnnie have returned to their home in Brownwood after visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hughes. They were accompanied by Velma Morris who also visited in the Hughes home.

Stigall Farm's Mae West Sacks Up The Kleberg Stables

"Mae West," C. L. Stigall farm filly from Davilla virtually sacked up the Kleberg Stables in Cuero Monday in winning $20,000 three quarters event on the racing card.

A half sister of Assault, Miss Princess, ran last in the race while Mae West won by a head over Blondie and brought the Stigall farm a reputed $37,500.

While local attention was focused on the Cuero stakes, won by the Milam county filly, Styvie won the Acqueduct handicap in New York to push his earning to $742,210. At the same time Armed took the Washington handicap in Chicago to pass Assault in winnings.

Assault the Kleberg stables' triple crown winner is soon to race Armed in a $100,000 event, winner take all. The King Ranch comet looked good in a test yesterday in New York after a lameness that caused the postponement of the match.

Optional Road Law Not Submitted Here; Bureau Asks Results

Texas Election Bureau telegraphed the Herald asking for results on the Optional Road Law plan. The question was not submitted in Milam county.

There was some talk of getting it submitted but the Commissioners Court declined without a petition. Milam county was listed in publicity stories as considering the proposal and Texas Election Bureau was not so informed.

The Commissioners Court began practicing the County Unit System several years ago on auto registration money. It is now split four ways each Commissioner Precinct getting about 515,000.

The Cameron Commissioner Precinct gives up eight thousand dollars a year or 14 per cent of the total since more cars are registered in this precinct than in any other. That is a practical example of the so called county unit system.

Jerry Schiller Motors Sells Four Dodge Buses To Schools of County

Jerry Schiller Motors in Cameron has sold 4 new Dodge buses, two to the Cameron schools and one each to the Salem School and Gause School.

Mr. Schiller says these new transportation units were sold on competitive comparison of buses and he feels proud to have had four of the new types selected.

The two Cameron buses will be used to transport children to the school here and since the new state school law is in effect transportation is more vital. The Salem school has been discontinued and the children will be brought to Cameron.

At Gause the children are transported to the Gause schools. The new Dodge buses are the latest type of such equipment and are heated for winter use.

CAR OF HONEY SHIPPED

H. E. GRAHAM SENDS FIRST CAR OUT CITY

H. E. Graham of Cameron shipped a car load of grain honey over the Santa Fe Tuesday to Los Angeles.

This is the first car shipment of Milam county honey to go over a railroad in the history of the county it was said. The honey was consigned to Bryan & Sawyer in Los Angeles. The honey shipped weighed 63,500 pounds and was sent out in 5 gallon cans.

Mr. Graham is one of the largest honey producers in Texas and maintains apiaries in a number of places, having his home and headquarters in Cameron.

W. DuBois, agent for the Santa Fe, said the honey car left the Santa Fe yards here Tuesday afternoon and so far as records at the railroad company discloses is the first and only car shipment of honey ever set out of Cameron by rail.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Welch of Santa Anna visited L. R. Carleton and daughters Connie and Vivian over the week end.

CITY LIMITS EXTENDED

COUNCIL FINALLY ACTS ON ANNEX ORDINANCE

The city limits of the city of Cameron were extended last night by the City Council by the enactment of an ordinance based upon a majority petition submitted several weeks ago.

It is the first extension of the city's limits in history and the city is now 101 years old.

By the enactment of the ordinance some 25 people now become residents of the city and some 10 school children may now attend the Cameron schools.

The territory taken in is in the Country Club addition to the city of Cameron. The area is small but will bring the city some additional tax revenue as well as the school. Most important however is relief for the school children. Other sections adjoining the city limits need relief but indications are they will not get it.

Under the tax laws property owners will pay no taxes next January on the property taken in. Since property not assessed in early 1947 cannot appear on the tax rolls, the area will not pay any 1947 taxes. They will pay in January 1949 or October 1948 if they elect.

Residents subject to the payment of a poll tax cannot vote in any city election until they have been residents 6 months. Indications were they may be able to vote in the February 1948 primaries in the city without the payment of a poll tax since none can be legally assessed.

CONSTRUCTION TOTALS ARE CLIMBING HERE

Building permits in the City of Cameron during the month of August totaled $33,470 it was disclosed early Tuesday at the office of W. H. Stafford, City Secretary.

Mr. Stafford said that the largest permit of the month was issued to the Burkes-Howard Company for 17,000 for their new building on North Fannin Avenue.

The remainder of the total, largest for any single month of the year, represents repairs and additions and some construction in the residence areas.

Cost of materials and labor are large factors in permit totals and the face of the city is little changed. Construction, new buildings in the business district are needed. New areas are necessary if the city is to make any modern day progress.

Visitors in the H. N. Tate home last week were: Mrs. C. R. Matlock of St. James, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Harmer and Mr. and Mrs. Abe Roks of St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Matlock and Mrs. Harmer are cousins of Mrs. Tate.

$10,500 FOR NEGRO SCHOOL

NEW HARVESTER BUILDING

PRESS BOX FOR YOEMEN STADIUM

WILL BE READY FOR GAME SEPTEMBER 12

A press box on the south stands at Yoemen stadium has been authorized by the school board here and contract has been authorized for the construction.

J. E. Johnson, architect, has drawn plans and specifications for the box and Coach Leo Jackson was pleased over the results of months of effort to get this needed improvement.

It was understood that funds accumulating in the athletics account would be used for the press box. The cost is expected to be about $500.

Mr. Johnson has drawn the plans and they disclose that the box is to be erected atop the south tier of seats on the 50 yard line. The box is to be glassed in for sweeping view of both ends of the field, will have ventilation from the south and entrance from the stands east and west. Inside the box will be equipped with fluorescent lighting and electric outlets for both fans and heaters.

At the west end of the box a den will be arranged for the broadcaster who operates the public address system to bring the spectators a play by play report. Inside this booth will be room for spotters.

Outside and in the main expanse of the box will be room for five or six writers.

In providing these accommodations for visiting newspaper correspondents Coach Jackson feels that the hospitality at the field is now in keeping with the plans he has had since he took over the job of directing athletics. These accommodations are much appreciated by the press men and the press box is the only means by which such facilities can be provided.

The school board was divided. Three members voted against the press box and three voted for it. The chairman of the board, realizing the need for the box, voted for it and so Yoemen stadium, at long last, has a press box.

HAYDEN LAWRENCE IS PRESIDENT FIREMEN

Hayden Lawrence, veteran member of the Cameron Volunteer Fire Department, was named president of the department at the annual election of officers held here.

Other officers are: August Gurecky, Vice President; John C. Andres, Secretary and Treasurer; John Eanes, Reporter; Dr. T. Leland Denson, Physician; William Schigut, Mascot.

The Firemen voted to sponsor Fire Prevention Week and to give prizes for the best posters submitted. Dates for fire prevention week will be announced soon.

New Machine Shop Opens In Cameron

J. F. Speed of Giddings has opened a machine shop in the building formerly occupied by the Lone Star Service Station in Santa Fe Town. The building is on South 8th Street.

Mr. Speed formerly operated a machine shop in Giddings and has had 30 years experience.

Mr. Speed's family has moved to Cameron and they are now residents of the city.

Henry Kreisman and daughter, Gertrude of Houston were Cameron visitors for the week end. They are formerly of Cameron.

BURKES-HOWARD CO. STARTS CONSTRUCTION

Ground has been broken and construction work is under way on the new home for the Burkes-Howard Company, International Harvester Company dealers for this area.

The new building to cost approximately $25,000 is to be located at the corner of North Fannin and Highway 77 on property purchased by the company here 3 years ago when they first planned their expansion program.

International Harvester Company dealers are required to construct what is known as a prototype building of standard architecture and design. Materials vary and the Burkes-Howard building will be constructed of aluminum and lined with sheet rock. Fireproof materials are to be used in major part throughout the building.

Stanley Hughes is the supervising workman. The building is not under contract but is being built by the company.

J. M. Howard and A. J. Burkes are the owners of the franchise here to sell and service Farmall tractors and International Harvester Company implements.

The new building will be 82x96 and the frontage on North Fannin and on Highway 77 will be of plate glass. The pylon or tower that is required on the prototype buildings will greatly increase the modern design. Already a warehouse has been in use for some time, built early this year and located on the south corner of the property.

Mr. Burkes and Mr. Howard deserve much for the success they have made as distributors for farm equipment here and this new building is a monument to the service they are rendering and is a great step forward in Cameron to take the business district into new legitimate areas.

Texas Gets Deluge In First Man Made Rain Along the Rio Grande; Dry Ice Sprinkled On Thunder Heads Brings Downpour Quickly

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 26.—Residents along the Rio Grande, in the vicinity of Eagle Pass, in Maverick County Tuesday had had a taste of man-made rain, a startling artificial experiment of dropping dry ice on a cloud and starting a downpour.

Taking off from Hurt Airport, here, Monday afternoon, a party of six went to 14,500 feet at a point about 12 miles northwest of Eagle Pass, near the Mexican border, in the first of several rainmaking tests planned by the Foundation of Applied Research, established here by the Slick interests.

With the winding Rio Grande in sight, the plane topped a large cumulus cloud of about 9000 feet in depth. R. W. Brown, chief engineer of the foundation, and its young founder, Tom Slick, widely known San Antonio businessman, dumped out 50 pounds of dry ice in the middle of the huge white cloud. There was no indication of rain at first.

The plane's pilot, Jack Davis, wartime Air Transport Command flier, who had been schooled by the foundation's research men as to what might happen, shot the gas to the plane.

Flying at top speed, Davis was able to get it away before the turbulence that was created by dropping the ice into the cloud.

As the plane got on its way, those in it saw the cloud puff up at the top, in much the same manner that

ADDITION AUTHORIZED AT O. J. THOMAS HIGH

An appropriation of $10,500 has been voted for the construction of a two room unit addition to the O. J. Thomas high school in Cameron for negroes, it was disclosed here Saturday and contract has been let.

J. E. Johnson, local architect, prepared the plans for the addition which were approved by the school board. It was understood that the funds available for this construction were made possible by surpluses accumulating over a period of years, in major part accruing from increased funds last year.

The addition to the school will be of concrete, tile and brick and will be two story of matching architecture with the present building which was constructed in 1923. Bonds were authorized at that time for the Ada Henderson School and the negro school, the latter cost $25,000.

The addition to the O. J. Thomas school plant is made necessary because of the increase in scholastics. The board here is taking steps to provide long overdue improvements in the negro school system.

Crowded conditions in the school have made it difficult for maximum work in teaching. Negro school teachers under the new state apportionment and aid laws will receive the same salary scales as at other schools and now that the board has acted so wisely in providing needed expansion of the negro school plant the city's educational system is fast reaching adequate proportions.

Mrs. C. V. Schuh visited in Cameron this week and will accompany her husband from Temple back to their home in Austin. Mr. Schuh is with Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. and has been doing special work for the Company in Temple for some time, but will return to his regular work next week.

TEXAS NATIONAL GUARD SEEKING FULL QUOTA

The newsreels showed the atomic bomb's reaction on it being dropped at Bikini.

This was at 5:10 p. m. In the ensuing minute, the thermometer in the plane dropped four degrees, from 32 down to 28.

The plane was put in a glide. In 20 minutes the plane dropped to 4000 feet, and by this time the perfectly white cloud was changing into a dark rain cloud. Then it started to rain. At 5:30 p. m. a driving rain had set in and Davis and Brown estimated that it covered four square miles. The pilot turned the plane directly into the path of the rain and flew through it. On circling back, Davis said, the rain's intensity had increased to where it was then covering six square miles.

TEXAS NATIONAL GUARD SEEKING FULL QUOTA

Texas National Guardsmen will compete in a two-month recruiting contest starting on National Guard Day, September 16, for a State recruiting prize which will include a trip by airplane to Washington and the Army-Navy football game at Philadelphia, Maj. Gen. K. L. Berry, the Adjutant General of Texas, today announced.

The national observance will feature a nation-wide radio broadcast (turn to page four)

RAIN HALTS MOVEMENT OF 1947 CROP HERE

A total of 1500 bales of new crop 1947 cotton had been received at the warves of the Cameron Compress Company up to noon Wednesday.

The recent rains have slowed up movement of the crop, believed not to be large due to the dry weather in early July.

The acreage is increased 20 per cent over 1946. The lowest crop production in history occurred last year when less than 10 thousand bales were harvested. In 1925 the year of the most disastrous drought in the history of the county, the county produced 10 thousand bales.

So far no labor needs have seriously handicapped farmers for the crop is not large enough to call for outside labor. Later in September help may be needed for a short time. Cotton received at the Compress is combined receipts from local gins and cotton trucked in from nearby points.

Coach Jackson Named On Coaching Board

Leo Jackson, head coach of athletics at Yoe High School, has been named to the Board of Directors of the State High School Coaches Association. He will represent Region 6 in the state Association.

It is the duty of the directors to make plans for the annual coaching school such as that held in El Paso in early August and which was attended by Coach Jackson. The association also makes suggestions about rule changes in all phases of athletics.

The 6th District is a large one with Cameron on the north boundary and San Antonio on the South.

Not merely a grape soda, but a softly carbonated beverage with rich body, delightful aroma, and lush, ripe flavor. Packaged in the light weight, full six-ounce quick-chill bottle.

F. B. I. Expose Basis Of "Violence" Film At Milam on Thursday

When a group of phoney patriots, the United Defenders, endeavor to put across un-American ideas through murder and coercion, an F. B. I. agent gets on their trail and saves a newspaper woman from their brutality in Monogram's daring expose, "Violence." The dramatic film, which brings to the screen for the first time an insight into the workings of some recent fascist-minded patriotic organizations, co-stars Michael O'Shea and Nancy Coleman who are seen together for the first time.

The film will be shown at the Milam Theatre on Thursday, September 4, matinee and night.

Nancy Coleman portrays a newspaper woman who gets a job as secretary to the leader of the United Defenders, in order to ferret out their activities for publication. After she has enough facts on the political phoney, who try to lure veterans into their fold under the guise of patriotic ideals, Nancy takes a leave of absence, supposedly to see relatives in Chicago, but in reality to give her expose to her newspaper. Unfortunately, a taxi accident makes her an amnesia victim. F. B. I. agent Michael O'Shea, who is after the mob, befriends Nancy while she is in the hospital, and claims he is a close friend. He goes back with the befogged girl to the Defenders, where he joins the mob. O'Shea learns that the outfit murdered a vet member who didn't like their violent methods and, when he discovers too much, Sheldon Leonard, one of the ringleaders, traps the F. B. I. agent and the incognito news-girl. Their lives are in jeopardy as the United Defenders go into vigorous action to break up a housing rally in the climax.

Peter Whitney, Pierre Watkin, Frank Reicher, Clay Forester, John Hamilton, Richard Orving, Carol Donne, Jimmy Clark and William Gould are in the "Violence" supporting cast, which includes many veterans of World War II. Jack Bernhard directed the drama, and the original screenplay by Stanley Rubin and Louis Lantz was co-produced by Bernhard and Bernard Brandt. Edward J. Kay was musical director, and also wrote the musical score.

Popular Dick Powell In "Johnny O'Clock" At Cameron Thursday

For all the movies' vaunted excursions into the never-never land of escape, they pay scrupulous attention to life's little realistic touches. As a matter of fact, special pride is taken by the movie producers in seeing that movie sets and scenes have the authoritative stamp of authenticity.

So when Columbia decided to make a movie involving big-time gamblers and gambling, it retained John P. Barrett, Hollywood's expert on movie gambling scenes, as technical advisor. The film, "Johnny O'Clock," co-starring Dick Powell and Evelyn Keyes, is coming Thursday to the Cameron Theatre.

Powell's role in this hard-hitting melodrama of a flashy young gambler, Johnny O'Clock, who played rough with women who played cute, is said to offer him ample opportunity for a dynamic performance. Johnny's on the spot when he meets up with Evelyn Keyes, an eyes-wide-open girl who lets herself wide open for Johnny's charm.

Lee J. Cobb heads the supporting cast as a methodical detective. Others include Ellen Drew as a master gambler's moll, Nina Foch as an innocent checkroom girl who is murdered; S. Thomas Gomez as the boss gambler and John Kellogg an ex-convict. Jim Bannon, Mabel Paige and Phil Brown are also to be seen in subsidiary roles.

Director Robert Rossen wrote the screen play from associate producer Milton Holmes' original. He is reported to have packed it with such exciting happenings as two murders, plenty of gunplay including a machine gunning, an auto crash and romantic interludes. And there's a surprise ending that should get plenty of reaction from the fans. Edward G. Nealis was the producer. The sets are reported to be lavish and the women's gowns are something for the style book.

Mrs. R. L. Merrill and son Roland Lee Jr. of Lockhart are spending a two weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Johnson.

Mrs. Daisy Sprott had as guests for the past two weeks, her daughter, Mrs. Leo Price, of New Orleans, La. and her sister, Mrs. Ruth Sprinkle Whittle, of Gladewater, both of whom are leaving some time this week for their homes.

"Thunder Mountain" With Tim Holt Opens Sunday At Milam

Tim Holt rides the range again starring in RKO Radio's fast-paced action drama of the early turbulent West, "Thunder Mountain," based on one of Zane Grey's popular adventure stories. Martha Hyer, Richard Martin and Steve Brodie have the top supporting roles.

The film opens Sunday, September 7, at the Milam Theatre for a two day run.

Holt, in debt for taxes on his ranch, finds himself embroiled with a gang of crooks who know that his land is wanted for a dam site. Dragged into an old feud involving a girl and her family he is jailed when framed for the murder of one of her brothers. His exoneration and the defeat of the crooks are accomplished by clever plotting calling for punch-packed action all the way.

Miss Hyer has the role of the girl who feuds with Holt and then falls in love with him. Martin, as Holt's partner, provides comedy in his romantic pursuit of a dance hall girl, and Steve Brodie is the brother. Others in the supporting cast are Virginia Owen, Harry Woods, Jason Robards, Robert Clarke, Richard Powers and Harry Harvey.

Screen Version of
"Egg and I" Comes
To Cameron Sunday

"The Egg and I," the movie version of Betty MacDonald's best seller which has been read by more than 25 million persons, comes Sunday to the Cameron Theatre with Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray in the starring roles of Betty and Bob.

One of the most hilarious pieces of Americana ever conceived, the picture recounts the adventures of a honeymooning couple who try to wrest a living from a mountain-wilderness chicken ranch.

Miss Colbert discards her trademark glamour and literally goes back to the soil, even to the point of dunking herself in the odoriferous mud of a pigsty while she wrestles with "Cleopatra," the temper-mental sow.

MacMurray, as the slow-witted, pre-occupied husband who is unable to recognize the fact that his wife is working herself to death in a struggle with yesteryear's inconveniences, has a role exactly tailored to his style.

The book has been produced by Universal-International on a lavish scale. A spectacular forest fire which burns down the ranch just when the honeymooners think they have won their struggle is one of the highlights.

Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride play Ma and Pa Kettle, the earthy, shiftless, prolific neighbors whose doings are a constant succession of king-size laughs.

The screenplay by Producer Fred Finklehoffe and Director Chester
Erskine follows the book with commendable fidelity but manages added suspense by the addition of a story line, in which Louise Allbritton plays the other woman with designs on MacMurray.

Cast of the picture includes: Billy House, Richard Long, Fuzzy Knight,
Johnny Berkes, Vic Potel, Esther
Dale, Donald MacBride, Samuel S.
Hinds, Elizabeth Rindon, and Isabel O'Madigan.

Mrs. Joe Ulicnik and son Joe, Jr., spent the week end in Travis with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dodwell.

Cyril Zarosky of Marak is a patient in the St. Edwards Hospital.

Jimmy Heffington of Houston stopped in Cameron Wednesday for a short business trip.

Farmers and other members of the cotton industry across the nation are being called on to support the National Cotton Council's worldwide program to increase the consumption of American cotton and cottonseed products. Cotton producers throughout the Belt are asked to act in building a "levée of demand" across the dangerous chasm of cotton's consumption by contributing ten cents of each bale ginned. The funds are used to support the Council's program of cotton research, physical quality, price promotion, and foreign trade.

NATIONAL GUARD—

and Regular Army and civilian organizations will join with Guardsmen in local observances in cities throughout the State.

The Texas recruiting contest, in which it is hoped to enlist 1,000 recruits in National Guard units throughout the State, will be conducted in conjunction with a nationwide contest designated the "National Guard Assembly," for which a goal of 88,888 enlistments has been set, Gen. Berry said. This national goal represents the enlistment of a man a minute during each day of the two-month campaign.

In accordance with President Truman's proclamation of September 16
as National Guard Day, Gov. Jester today directed that it be observed throughout Texas. Governor Jester said in his proclamation:

"The history of the State of Texas had to be lived before it could be written. Among those who have lived it most nobly are thousands of its sons who through many generations have served the military traditions by which our honor as a State and as a Nation has been kept alive and shining. From homespun and buckskin to the khaki of today; from the days when their name in arms was the Texas Militia, to today when they are renowned as the Texas National Guard, they have been the first of their communities to present themselves to peril in its every form that their fellow citizens and all our homes, might be kept safe."

Announcing Texas' participation in the national contest, Gen. Berry explained that, "the new National Guard will expand ultimately to a strength of 682,000—three times the pre-war force. The Texas National Guard, which totalled 11,848 officers and men when it was inducted into Federal service prior to World War II, ultimately must attain a strength of 30,110, as compared to its current strength of 11,112.

"The Texas National Guard has a proud heritage of service to the State as well as the Nation, in both war and peace. The patriotic support of the current campaign by all Texas citizens will assure the continuance of this heritage in the reorganized

National Guard."

The Texas recruiting champion, with the winners from each of the other States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and Hawaii, will be guests of the Secretary of the Army and the Chief of the National Guard Bureau of the War Department, in Washington, Gen. Berry said. The Guardmen will be guest of honor at a luncheon to be given by the Secretary of the Army and will also visit the White House.

Other features of the prize winners' trip will include a tour of the capital and attendance at the Army-Navy football classic.

All enlisted members of Federally inspected Texas National Guard units will be eligible for the contest, Gen.
Berry said. The recruiting drive will close on November 16, and the State winner will be announced by Gov.
Jester immediately thereafter. The winner will leave for Washington the week of November 28.

"WHITE unto the harvest"

That was the way the ancients expressed it when they appealed for Missionaries to go into the outer lands to spread the news of the new Gospel.

Harvests are none the less the results when lands are planted, and, like wise in the world of commerce. All we are sowers of seed in whatever field we work.

Opportunity sometimes can be created but in most every sense it knocks at the door. The merchant who advertises, and advertises consistently hangs the key outside the door or spreads a big welcome mat.

With new merchandise available—the people with money—needs great—indeed the field is white unto the harvest. Plan your ads so they will be daily and weekly consistent appeals and invitations to those who are looking for that kind of store.

3 BILLION OUTLAY IS NATIONAL ESTIMATE

War veterans throughout the country were crowding the banks tendering their leave bonds for cash. It was estimated that over the nation the cash outlay would be around 3 billion dollars, that very few of the bonds would be retained by the veterans.

Cameron veterans were cashing and converting their bonds Tuesday. One estimate said that approximately 60 per cent of the local veterans were either cashing or converting their bonds to insurance. The major traffic at the banks was cash.

There was no estimate on the number of bonds owned by local veterans but more than a thousand may be tendered before the week is over. It was said that bonds may average from $200 to $250 each and the total cash outlay might run well over a quarter million dollars.

Veterans were given these bonds because they were on battle fronts and were not allowed to go on leave.

Miss Lucille Morton of Amarillo spent two weeks here in the home of her sister, Mrs. D. L. Milburn.

PIONEER AND FORMER RESIDENT IS BURIED

Miss Mollie Allen, 93, native of Alabama and for many years a resident of Milam county, died Sunday evening, August 31 at the home of her niece, Mrs. A. B. Tyson in Denton, Texas.

Miss Allen left Cameron some years ago to make her home in Denton and returned to her old home in Cameron at intervals as her health would permit. She kept in touch with her old home community through friends and was a constant reader of The Herald.

She was born on July 26, 1854 in Talladega County, Alabama, the daughter of Thomas Jefferson and Martha Beavers Allen. They came to Texas in 1861.

They took a ship out of Mobile, Alabama and crossed the Gulf of Mexico landing at Brazoria, Texas and from there they came by boat up the Brazos River to Port Sullivan in Milam county which was then the terminus of the navigation of the Brazos.

Miss Allen grew up in Milam county. When the tiny boat landed at Port Sullivan that was a prosperous community with a college and the largest town in the county aside from Rockdale, Davilla and Cameron. It is one of the early settlements and not far from the old town of Nashville where Sterling C. Robertson established his colony headquarters before the Republic.

Miss Allen, before moving to Denton, had lived 85 years in Milam county. She was a member of the Baptist church, having united with that faith in early childhood. She had been a member of the Cameron Baptist church for 30 years. Before moving to Cameron she lived at Maysfield and until a few years ago the old Allen home still was standing. Maysfield is one of the oldest of the settled communities in the county.

When she moved to Cameron she lived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Blaylock for a while and later bought her own home on South Crockett Street.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon September 2 from the Chapel of the Green Funeral Home in Cameron, conducted by Rev. Frank M. Newton, pastor of the Baptist Church in Buckholts. Interment was made in Oak Hill Cemetery with the Green Funeral Home directing arrangements.

Surviving are the following nephews and nieces: Mrs. A. B. Tyson of Denton; Mrs. W. M. Schrock of Dallas; Mrs. John Snyder of El Paso; Major T. Ford of Lexington and John Ford of Dallas. Surviving grand nieces and nephews are: Mrs. John Muse, Mrs. Burnes Bever and Melvin Ford of Cameron.

Active pallbearers were: Gus Evans Roy Baskin, Carl Black, Grady Cooper, Niley Smith and E. A. Camp.

Honorary pallbearers were: Giles McDermott, Sealy Lamkin, Rush Thomas, R. H. McIntosh, O. L. Kidd, Dan Tyson, H. L. Atkinson, H. V. Harlan, Hugh McKinney, J. B. White, Dr. J. S. Hubert, W. P. McCall, R. L. Batte, Sr., J. C. Mayfield, Clark Burke, Robert McLane, Bill Richter and M. G. Cox.

Gun Believed That of Crockett Given Alamo

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 1—A rifle found in the ruins of the Alamo 111 years ago by a Mexican peon was returned to the shrine today.

As descendants of the band of men who gave their lives for Texas independence looked on, a flint-locked firearm which may have belonged to David Crockett was placed in a special case "to remain forever in the chapel of the Alamo."

The presentation was made by Col. Walter Finney Siegmund, of Alton, Ill., to members of the daughter of the reclusive Texas during solemn early-afternoon ceremonies.

Col. Siegmund's family owned the weapon for many years.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 7.

The Golden Text is: "God said, let us make man in our image, after our likeness" (Genesis 1:26).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "This people have I formed for myself: they shall show forth my praise" (Isaiah 43:21).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is coexistent and coeternal with that Mind" (page 336).

Georgetown Couple Featured For Well Managed Ranch Life

A Texas ranch family has been selected by the editors of a national magazine to illustrate what the well managed ranch offers in opportunities for comfortable living.

The family is that of Roy Gunn of Georgetown, The Gunns are featured in the sixth of County Gentleman's "Good Farming—Good Living" series of articles, designed to point up the growing realization that the farm or ranch is more than a mere food production plant, but a "place to live" as well.

The article in the September issue is written by George Sessions Perry, nationally-known Texas author.

The Gunn family consists of Roy, his wife Maggie, and their three children. Seventeen-year-old Tate is president of his chapter of the Future Farmers of America; nine-year-old Patsy is a merry hand on a cow drive; and eight-year-old Sammy can ride with any of them.

"They are old-line cow people of the kind that gives the Western-ranch tradition real meaning and dignity," the article reports. "They are a part of that too small but triply-blessed group of people who love their work, and enjoy it more than any kind of store-bought entertainment. When you ask either of the boys what career he wants to follow in adult life, he looks astonished, then answers, 'Why ranching, of course.'"

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gunn were born on ranches, the article continues. They grew up to regard a horse as an auxiliary set of legs. Long days in the saddle are the breath of life to the Gunn family, who are on the way up from hard times and now can call 2,000 acres of Texas their own. The entire family leads a busy life with no hired help to do the chores. The children do their share, and Mrs. Gunn churns her own butter, makes clothes for herself and the children, and raises orphan lambs and kids. She believes that the free, outdoor life they live is what makes her family so healthy and the doctor's bills so low.

REVIEW OF SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE TEAMS

By WALLACE COLLINS

It is doubtful if the Texas Aggies will rule the Southwest Conference for 1947. They have changed from the "T" formation to the double wing which might turn them into a good passing team.

They have good passers in Burly Baty and Stan Hollmig. Other backs include Bobby Goff, Bob Goode, Jimmy Cashion, Jess Burditt, Ed Dusak, Barney Welch, Bobby Dew, and Preston Smith.

Aggie ends will be well stocked with Cotton Howell, Norton Higgins, and Charles Wright. Another key man in the Aggie line will be George Kadera a tackle.

The A&M backfield is impressive enough, but the line is weak and that will hurt badly. They have a dangerously late schedule. The schedule is: Southwestern, Texas Tech, Oklahoma, LSU, TCU, Baylor, Arkansas, SMU, Rice, and Texas.

Commissioner Byron Neal of Rockdale was in Cameron Wednesday.

WILL FORCE NATIONS TO KEEP THEIR WORD

President Truman issued a stern warning to the nations of the world to-day that the United States intends to keep its word and pledge to the United Nations and will see to it that other nations do the same.

The President standing before the delegates to the conference of Foreign Ministers of all the American Republics, restated the historic policy of the United States for peace in the world but left no doubt that America will resort to arms unless the machinery set up for keeping the peace is respected by aggressor nations.

Mr. Truman said that he did not think anything in the current world situation would demand a resort to arms but that the United States is determined that all nations subscribing to the world organization shall respect their obligations.

He said that the treaty of hemisphere defense just signed in the Brazilian capital cannot guarantee world peace but there can be no world peace unless the western powers unite for it.

The President was cheered throughout his address which was a forthright statement of foreign policy. He pledged that the nations of the west would have the aid of the United States in all economic problems. In pledging the great economic resources of the United States as a force in the world for peace the President said "we are become unique in world history."

Mr. Truman warned the nations of Europe that while this country is rich and powerful in resources there is a limit and America will help no nation that is not willing to help itself, its neighbors and refuses to co-operate for the peace of the world.

Throughout his address there was a strong defiance and warning to Russia, though no mention was made of any country. He said that the United Nations Security Council should not be judged on what has happened since the war ended. Its job, he says, is to keep the peace and not make it.

He hailed the treaty of Rio Janeiro as hemispheric solidarity with a meaning and a great step forward for lasting peace.

The League of Nations was hailed as highly and so was the United Nations Agreement. Armed forces applied to world offenders is the only language the people as yet understand.

BEWARE THE BLIND SPOT!

Oncoming bright headlights can momentarily blind the best of drivers. It requires seven seconds after passing glaring lights for your eyes to dilate again to the darkened road. Even in this brief space of time you may not see the dim figure in the road ahead of you until it is too late.

It's the early hours of darkness, especially in the Fall and Winter when traffic is still heavy, that produce the heaviest fatalities in driver-pedestrian accidents. The three hours after sunset are three times more dangerous than daylight hours.

A safe driver reduces his average speed at night. He looks away from glaring lights, watching the edge of the road on his side. He never "overdrives" his lights and can stop at any time within his headlight range. He is especially careful at intersections and is on the watch for unlighted vehicles, and motorists changing tires at the side of the road.

Pedestrians, for your own safety, walk to the left facing traffic, carry something white. Be extra cautious at night. Never forget, the life you save may be your own.

CHILDREN HERE MUST ATTEND CURRY SCHOOL

Hope for relief for some 50 school children living adjacent to the city limits of Cameron was blacked out Tuesday at Austin when a local delegation was told they cannot attend the city schools.

These pupils who have been attending Cameron schools by payment of tuition must attend the Curry school.

Encouraged to go to Austin the committee of school authorities found the situation as had been understood and announced here. The State Department of Education will not approve state apportionment money on students who do not attend their own district school where equivalent grades are taught.

The Cameron School Board must decide whether it will permit these students to attend and pay tuition, or whether they will stand by the law as enacted. All tuition is deducted from the treasury by the state department. If a school board so decided it could collect larger fees than the apportionment would be, but in that case it would be violating the law. Such a practice would set up a storm of trouble all over Texas, especially in the districts where increased taxes have been voted to meet the requirements of the new state aid law.

If pupils who do not reside in the cities or the school districts where they have been transferring are allowed to pay tuition and come in, those patrons who have been added to the cities and assumed the added tax burden, would have cause for complaint.

The situation is bad. Relief for the children is important and it seems that the law could have been so framed as to cure a number of hardships, especially where children actually live in a city but not in actual city limits.

COMPLAINTS MADE THAT LAW BEING VIOLATED

Does Milam county need a game warden? That is the question many are asking these days and this sudden query may have resulted from complaints that have been voiced by a number that certain abuses are occurring, especially in the waters of Little River.

The Daily Herald has been requested to call attention to this situation by a number of citizens. This newspaper has no facts on which to base a complaint but can give the names of those who seem to know what they are talking about.

There is no cause for alarm as the situation has not reached the calamity stage. The more reasonable demand seems to be from citizens who want a Game Warden in this county. They feel one is needed and this newspaper, always trying to serve the public interest passes this suggestion along. It is not original with this paper but comes because the appeal has been made to us to voice a protest at certain practices and the absence of a Warden who can and will enforce the law.

Under existing law and policy game and fish are being protected all over Texas. Why not in Milam county, they point out.

One suggestion seemed to be dominant in all this and that is: If a game warden is named here he must not be old, blind or crippled; and what's more he must be independent of the political system of protection of the political system otherwise there would be no need to waste public money.

Graham Ainsworth Says He Was Attacked

Graham Ainsworth complained Tuesday that he had been misrepresented in the case originating in city court where he was fined. He said he was attacked while seated in a bar in Santa Fe Town.

Mr. Ainsworth said he paid a fine of $15 and not $25 as reported. He said that there were some fights not reported and regrets that his case was printed and others not printed.

He said he was not the aggressor in the attack which resulted in his being wounded with a knife in the left leg.

SCHOOL NOTICE

Vaccination certificates for diseases common to children are required. All above starters must have small pox certificates of vaccination.

NEW BASE NOW 27.76 ACA ADVISES HERE

Loan basis on 1947 cotton entering the pool sponsored by the government is 27.76 it was said early today by A. E. Sanders, administrative officer of the Milam county ACA.

This new figure is the final schedule of base and represents an increase over figures announced two weeks ago.

The loan is on basis middling white and extra white. Milam county cotton farmers have each year placed a considerable portion of the crop in the government loan pool.

The loan seeks to establish a parity price and if the price declines at selling time the farmer is protected. If the price advances he gets a reasonable application of all advantages. The support program is a measure brought into effect some years ago when "saving the farmers" became a government function.

Ben Arnold School To Open September 15

Ben Arnold public schools begin their 1947 fall term on Monday, September 15, it was announced here Wednesday by Mrs. H. E. Garner.

Mrs. Garner requests that all pupils be present on opening day so that registration can be completed and books issued.

Another successful school term is anticipated this coming year.

MILAM COUNTY LAGS IN PRODUCTION OF MILK

Milam county as a milk producing county ranks low among Texas counties despite the fact that this region is acknowledged to be one of the best in the state.

Recent developments indicate that interest may be growing for milk production. In connection with the county's production record the Texas Almanac published by the Dallas News has some interesting though regrettable facts.

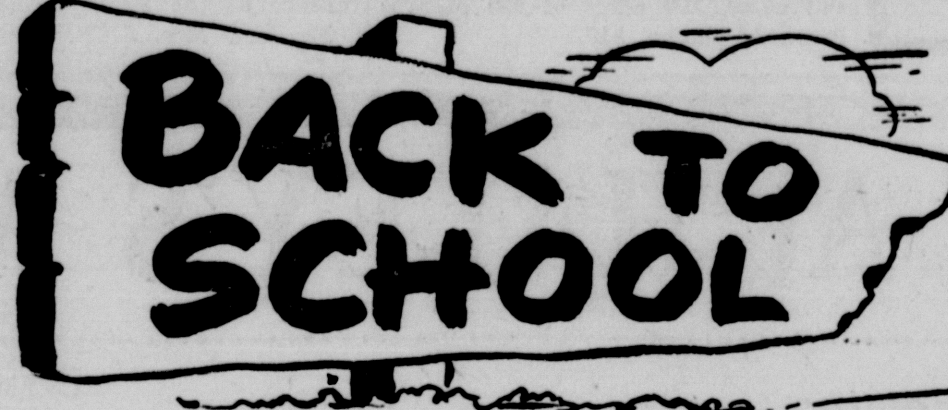

The figures as late as 1944 disclose that 6063 cows were milked in that year, that 3 million pounds of milk were produced but only 165,000 pounds were sold. Only 88 thousand pounds of cream was sold and only 31 thousand pounds of butter reached the market.

The cost of feed bought was considerably over a million dollars but this figure relates to the entire live stock set up.

Milam county has always been a large feeder area for beef cattle. In 1945 Milam county had 55 thousand head of cattle and 5 thousand head of mules and 3 thousand head of horses.

Dairying is lagging among the diversification practices on Milam county farms while poultry is leading. How green is our valley? The opportunity is here and much will depend on how we respond to this prospective farm income.
